PRESIDENT'S REPORT:        Lisa Pelletier

- Lisa reported that a contract was signed for three years with Legacy Photos. School pictures will be September 23 at FHS, (retake 10/15) and September 25 at Minerva (retake 10/16).
- Some upcoming events are Senior Breakfast and Decision Day.

TREASURER'S REPORT:        Kim Farrell

- Kim was not able to attend and no report was presented.

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT:        Joe Fantigrossi and Andrea Costanza

- Brotherhood/Sisterhood week went very well. Dr. Cala and Dave Paddock spoke about its origins. Money raised from fundraising during the week will support the TOPS program, which gives experiences to students not otherwise TOPS program.
- The District will have a team for the Corporate Challenge again this year. There are about 30 runners registered so far. Lidestri, CPAC, FEA and local restaurants are sponsoring.
- Yearbooks will be distributed the Friday before Memorial day at a Spring Festival. This will be a new concept this year, with a carnival-like atmosphere. Students attending the music trip that weekend will receive their yearbooks on the trip.
- AP Exams begin in early May. There are over 1100 exams to be given.
- The junior class is hosting a Mr. Fairport Contest this Friday at 7:00 p.m. Tickets are being sold during lunches.
- 3 students and 2 staff members will be going to Houston next week for a NASA-Hunch Extreme Science Program. Students involved in this program have worked to design an experiment to be tested in Houston in a zero gravity setting.
- Andrea reported that the musical at MD-Crazy for You went very well.
- 138 students are scheduled to attend the NY trip this weekend.
- There will be an Algebra Regents exam on June 3. This is for new material under common core. Students can also elect to take the old format of the regents at the end of June.
- The freshman dance theme is "Masquerade". Lisa will follow up with Michelle Britt for volunteer names.

TEACHER'S REPORT:        no report
